A FEW HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL RED CROSS CHAPTER

Tuesday night Mrs. H. R. Douglass gave instructions to 39 beginners in Red Cross work, while Mrs. Greig also held a class of ten in knitting. This Tuesday night class has been organized principally for the benefit of giving those ladies who cannot attend during the afternoon because of home cares an opportunity to contribute toward the work of the Red Cross. The Honor Guard Girls also assisted on that night.

Because of the excellency of the work that is being done by the local Red Cross society it is no longer necessary to ship the completed goods to Seattle for inspection, but the society have been directed to forward it directly to France where it is used in the hospital.

An ex-Canadian soldier by the name of Holly was in the city last week and called upon the Red Cross ladies, encouraging them in their work and urging upon them the great need of the work they're doing. Mr. Holly was in the first great battle of the war at Ypres where he received an abdominal wound which confined him to the hospital for seven time he became familiar with the needs of the hospital and realized the great work that is before the Red Cross in this one department. Mr. Holly was in the trenches for two years and after being released from the hospital he received an honorable discharge.
